Public: There are extraordinary views from this oceanfront, Mid-Century modern style home on Yankee Point in the Carmel Highlands. Built in 1962 with a flexible floor plan, and taken down to the studs and rebuilt into an essentially new home with new electrical, roof, floors, paint, Lutron blinds, and a state-of-the-art indoor pool room, this is a smart home. Catch a glimpse of migrating whales, dolphins and pelicans through the floor to ceiling windows. You can see Point Sur to the South and Yankee Point and Yankee Cove to the North. Designed around a courtyard, there is a fireplace, fountain and room for an outdoor kitchen. Aply named Readers Rest, there are multiple places to rest, relax and while away the day. The floor plan offers Pelicans Next, a guest suite or office space with ocean views, a recreation room, indoor pool and hot tub, 3 interior ensuite bedrooms and a spacious living room, formal dining, kitchen and family room and an ocean front patio with fireplace.

Public:Looking for your own private retreat nestled between an ancient redwood grove and giant boulders but only 20 minutes from Carmel? This mini serene compound with three separate cabins might be just the fix for your lifestyle in these uncertain times. The main cottage, or "Harmony House", is a 2 bedroom, 1.5 bath A-frame with a fantastic old stone fireplace anchoring one end of the living room. The original cabin on property is a 1 bedroom, 1 bath cottage with a private deck looking out up to the terraced avocado orchard, Oaks and Redwoods beyond. The studio cottage with its large windows to enjoy the landscape has its own bath clustered together with a 2-car garage. The property includes a pool, avocado orchard, a well with a filtration system and a natural spring for water. The surveyed 6+ acre lot even borders a regional park, giving it the privacy and serenity desired to live IN Harmony with nature! What more could you ask for?
